HUMMINGBIRD

NEST RANCH

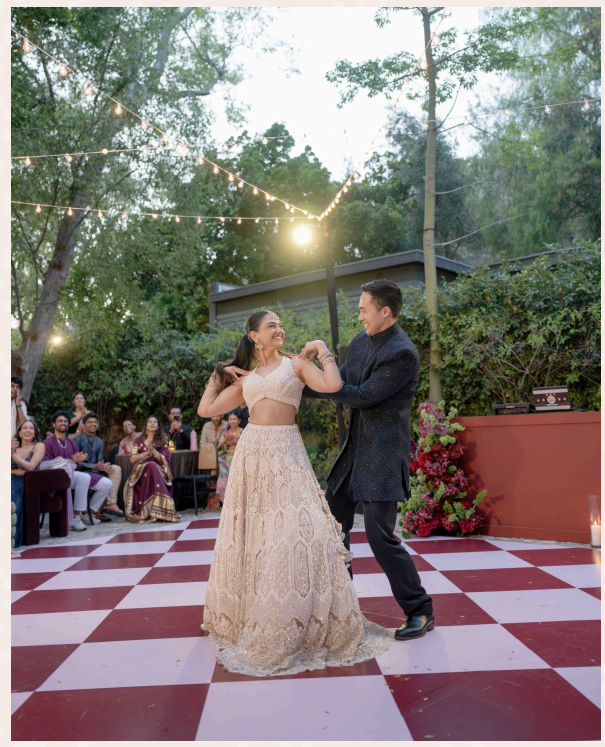

A Wedding Weekend Guide

More than a wedding day

Some celebrations deserve more than a single day.

At Hummingbird Nest Ranch, an extended wedding celebration offers the luxury of time to welcome loved ones, gather around the table, and savor the moments that so often pass too quickly.

From an intimate rehearsal dinner to an evening spent beneath the stars, the estate provides a beautiful backdrop for the gatherings that surround your wedding day.

With nowhere else to be, and more time to simply be together, the celebration becomes something even more memorable.

A weekend to remember

The most meaningful celebrations are often made up of moments both grand and wonderfully simple. From the anticipation of welcoming loved ones to the joy of celebrating together and the quiet moments before saying goodbye, each gathering becomes part of the story.

The Welcome

An evening to gather before the festivities begin. Whether an intimate rehearsal dinner or a welcome celebration beneath the stars, it's an opportunity to reconnect, share a toast, and enjoy the anticipation of everything to come.

The Celebration

The day you've been dreaming of, surrounded by the people who matter most. From the quiet anticipation of the morning to the joy of the evening's festivities, every moment becomes part of a story you'll carry with you.

The Farewell

A final opportunity to linger. A leisurely breakfast, a farewell gathering, or simply a few more moments together before the weekend comes to a close.

Stay a little longer

Some of the most cherished moments happen between the celebrations.

With private residences thoughtfully placed throughout the estate, Hummingbird Nest Ranch offers the opportunity to keep loved ones close while providing the comfort and privacy of a retreat.

From the intimate charm of the Casitas to the spacious Townhomes and the privacy of the two-bedroom Cottage, each accommodation offers its own distinctive character.

Slow mornings, unhurried conversations, and evenings spent reminiscing together become part of the experience, long after the celebration itself has ended.

*Additional celebrations and overnight accommodations are subject to availability and separate arrangements.

A little more time for what matters most.

More time to celebrate. More time to connect. More moments to remember.

We would be delighted to welcome you and your loved ones to Hummingbird Nest Ranch for a celebration that extends beyond a single day.
